

Your latest topic results:

Should adults choose which books you read?

31,437 total votes

Continue the conversation at home...

5-7: Do you respect views that are different to yours?

7-11: Can you recognise when someone has extreme views?

How can we show people that we respect their views?

Do British Values help us to understand what an extreme view is?

Who can you talk to if you see or hear an extreme view?

Need more information?

To access the resources below, click the links (Ctrl + click) or enter the search terms into your browser.

Educate Against Hate provides information about radicalisation, extremism and terrorism for parents & teachers.

Search Term:
Educate Against Hate

Search Term:
GOV Prevent

If you would like to find out more about Prevent, the Government website has plenty of information and guidance.

The Counter Terrorism Police's ACT Early outlines the signs and vulnerabilities of radicalisation to be aware of.

Search Term:
Act Early campaign

Search Term:
Exit Hate UK

Exit Hate UK offers support to families who think someone they know might be involved with an extremist group.

Internet Matters has advice to help keep young people safe online, and resources for parents & schools.

Search Term:
Internet Matters

Search Term:
Childline

Young people can talk through any concerns by contacting Childline anytime on 0800 1111, or by visiting their website.

Please Note: If you would like to discuss any concerns, seek out your school Safeguarding Lead.